

SUMMER SUNDAY MORNING ADULT CLASSES

¹⁶ And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up.
And as was his custom,
he went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day,
and he stood up to read.

¹⁷ And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him.
He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written,

¹⁸ "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives
and recovering of sight to the blind,
to set at liberty those who are oppressed,
¹⁹ to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.

Luke 4:16-19

Ever since Jesus read from the scroll of Isaiah in the synagogue of Nazareth, Christians have gravitated to this great prophecy as the interpretive center of the Old Testament.

Here the story of Israel, scourged by judgment and exile and hopeful of restoration, is framed by its witnesses, heaven and earth. How will Israel be brought through its school of suffering?

The book of Isaiah is perhaps the most compelling of all Old Testament prophecy. No other prophet rivals Isaiah's brilliance of style, powerful imagery and clear vision of the messianic hope. Isaiah's prophetic ministry begins with his temple vision and calling: "I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send?'"

Through a series of oracles Isaiah calls Israel and the nations to turn to the Lord, for judgment is coming. He announces that redemption is found in the Davidic Servant alone.

Join us on Sunday mornings during the Summer as our adult Bible classes examine some key passages from the book of Isaiah. We are looking forward to seeing you there.

Grace & Peace
